

What is DashboardX?

It is the umbrella system that includes the three systems: PolicyX, LMS, and Phishing. Through it, intelligent management of users is done, and systems statistics are displayed in general and statistics for each system in general or in detail.

DashboardX System Objectives

1

Facilitating user access to the three systems: PolicyX, LMS, Phishing.

2

Providing modern and interactive content

3

Providing customized content targeting different systems.

DashboardX Features

Linking with the three systems: PolicyX, LMS, Phishing.

Exporting detailed management reports.

Exporting users data through CSV, LDAP or AZURE.

Customization of content according to the required system.

Multiple languages used (English and Arabic).

Availability and ease of access.

Tracking and detailed reports.

Feedback.

Systems that DashboardX Connects to

Policy Management System

It is a system for publishing the company's policies and ensuring that all employees are fully aware of all its policies.

Learning Management System

It is a system for creating distance learning courses for students or for training employees on educational courses for the institution.

Phishing System

It is a system for training employees in the company to identify the types of threats they are exposed to in cyberspace and to protect the company from loss, damage or theft of data from its employees' devices.